INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE OF COMPLAINT FOR CUSTODY

After you have filed the complaint in the Prothonotary's office, you are required to serve all parties involved in the case with a copy of this complaint.

There are several ways you can handle the serving of the court papers upon the Defendant(s), this packet will explain two of them.

1) Service by mail. This is probably the best way to serve your Complaint. You will need to mail the complaint by first class mail. The type of mailing you must use is called certified mailing, restricted delivery, with a return receipt requested. Your postal worker will be able to help you fill in the certified mailing papers correctly.

This type of mailing is used because the Defendant(s) must sign for the documents before the postal worker will deliver it. This means that you can prove that the Defendant(s) got the complaint because the post office will return a special green card to you that shows the date and time that the letter was given to the Defendant(s). It is very important you keep this green card because you must file it with the Prothonotary so the judge can see the Defendant was served. As soon as you receive the return receipt card back from the post office you will then complete a Certificate of Service and file it with the Prothonotary. Do not forget to staple the return receipt card to the Certificate of Service.

2) Personal Service. You can have any competent adult who is not a party in the case hand the complaint to the Defendant(s). An adult is someone eighteen years of age or older. A person is a competent adult if he or she can accurately remember the time and place that the court papers were handed to the Defendant(s) and is capable of filling out the Certificate of Service. You, because you are a party in the case, may not be the one to hand the papers to the Defendant(s). You should not have another person hand the papers to the Defendant(s) if there is any danger that the Defendant(s) may harm them, it is best in those cases to have the Sheriff handle the service or do it by mail.

If you find it necessary to have another person hand the papers to the Defendant(s), then that person is the one who must sign the Certification of Service. Have the Certification signed as soon as possible after service is made and file it with the Prothonotary.

If the person serving the papers cannot find the Defendant(s), he or she may hand the papers to an adult family member of the Defendant(s) living in the same home as the Defendant(s) or who is in charge of the home. If the Defendant(s) lives in a hotel, an apartment house, or a boarding house, the person serving the papers may hand them to the clerk or manager of the residence. The papers may also be handed to the person in charge where the Defendant(s) works. In any case, the person serving the papers must get the name of the person to whom the papers are handed and put the name in the space provided on the Certificate of Service.

You DO NOT make service on the other party until after the complaint is filed in the Prothonotary Office. Properly serving complaint is very important, if this is not handled properly the court may delay the hearing in your case .

PETITION TO PROCEED INFORMA PAUPERIS

PRINT NEATLY IN BLUE OR BLACK INK

To file this Custody Complaint, it will cost $162.25 (cash or money order). However, it may be possible to have this filing fee waived if you can prove to the Court that you cannot afford to pay the $162.25.

To do this, you must file a Petition to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (“IFP”). An IFP is a detailed list of your income and expenses. You must complete the IFP and file it along with your Custody Complaint at the Prothonotary’s Office. Fill in the information to the best of your ability and remember to sign and date at the bottom of the form.

Sometimes psychological studies and/or home studies of the parties will be ordered by the Court. These studies may cost you money and can be very expensive depending on the number of individuals involved. The Court will issue an Order regarding payment of the fees.
