Mifflin County Pro Se Petition for Civil Contempt for Disobedience of Custody Order

---

HOW TO FILE A PETITION FOR CONTEMPT IN MIFFLIN COUNTY

You will need to file in the county where the original custody complaint was filed. Take the original documents and all copies to the Prothonotary's office located on the first floor of the courthouse (address listed above). Be sure that all copies of the Petition are stamped "FILED" by the Prothonotary and returned to you.

After filing the documents at the Prothonotary's Office you need to serve a copy of the contempt Petition to each party listed on the petition.

After the Judge's office assigns a hearing date and time, all parties will receive a copy of this order in the mail. You will need to appear for this hearing at the date and time specified.

DO NOT WRITE ON THE BACK OF THESE FORMS
ADD ADDITIONAL SHEETS OF PAPER IF NECESSARY.

DISCLAIMER BY THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MIFFLIN COUNTY, PA

The Court staff will not be able to give you legal advice or help you fill out/complete the forms. The information in the packets is not a substitute for professional legal advice. The Court assumes no responsibility and accepts no liability for actions taken by users of these documents, including reliance on their contents. Often, people disregard what a court order instructs them to do. In most cases, it is not a serious problem (for example, the father may pick up the child(ren) one hour later than what the order says). Filing a petition for contempt for something not serious is called "frivolous" and the court frowns on such actions. Thus, be sure the basis of your contempt petition is very important and that you can prove your case.

The paperwork involved in a contempt proceeding simply schedules a hearing so the court can determine if a party actually is in contempt.

After you have completed this packet take it to the Prothonotary's Office to file and in return they will provide you with 2 copies. One is for you and one is for you to serve on the other party. After serving the other party you will need to file the Certificate of Service with the court (you will find instructions on service further in the packet).

The Prothonotary will forward the paperwork to the court which will schedule the hearing and send a copy of the scheduling Order to both parties.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE OF PETITION FOR CONTEMPT OF CUSTODY, PARTIAL CUSTODY OR VISITATION

After you have filed the Petition in the Prothonotary's office, you are required to serve all other parties with a copy of this petition.

There are several ways you can handle the serving of the court papers upon the other party. This will explain two of them.

- 1) Service by mail. This is probably the best way to serve your Petition. You will need to mail the Petition by first class mail. The type of mailing you must use is called certified mail, restricted delivery, with a return receipt requested. Your post office worker will be able to help you fill in the certified mailing papers correctly.

This type of mailing is used because the other party must sign for the documents before the postal worker will deliver it. This means that you can prove that the other party received the Petition because the post office will return a special green card to you that shows the date and time that the Petition was given to the other party. It is very important you keep this green card because you must file it with the Prothonotary so the Judge can see the other party was served. As soon as you receive the return receipt card back from the post office, you will then complete a Certificate of Service and file it with the Prothonotary. Do not forget to staple the return receipt card to the Certificate of Service.

- 2) Personal Service. You can have any competent adult who is not a party in the case hand the petition to the other party. An adult is someone eighteen years of age or older. A person is a competent adult if he or she can accurately remember the time and place that the court papers were handed to the other party and is capable of reporting that information to the Judge. You, because you are a party in the case, may not be the one to hand the papers to the other party. You should not have another person hand the papers to the other party if there is any danger that the other party may harm them. It is generally best in all cases to have the Sheriff handle the service or do it by mail.

If you find it necessary to have another person hand the papers to the other party, then that person is the one who must complete the Certification of Service. Have the Certificate completed as soon as possible after service is made and file it with the Prothonotary.

If the person serving the papers cannot find the other party, he or she may hand the papers to an adult family member of the other party living in the same home as the other party or who is in charge of that home. If the other party lives in a hotel, an apartment house, or a boarding house, the person serving the papers may hand them to the clerk or manager of the residence. The papers may also be handed to the person in charge where the other party works. In any case, the person serving the papers must get the name of the person to whom the papers are handed and put their name in the space provided on the Certificate of Service.

Properly serving the Petition is very important. If this is not handled properly the court may delay the hearing in your case.
